Monson announces he is stepping down

Board begins process to select interim CEO

Marty Monson, CEO and Executive Director of the Barbershop Harmony Society since 2012, is stepping down to make room for a new leader to tackle the realities of the post-COVID world.

During his 11-year tenure, Monson led the 2017 adoption of a strategic plan that included Everyone in Harmony, which opened Society membership to all who want to sing. He also led the Society through the historic two-year, pandemic-driven hiatus in singing and gathering and the return last year to rehearsals, concerts, conventions and Harmony University. Marty's enthusiasm, character and integrity will leave a lasting legacy.

The Society Board has begun the process of selecting an interim CEO.

HARMONIZER HIGHLIGHT

Make every moment fruitful

It's said that time spent singing doesn't count against your total allotted seconds on Earth. But those non-singing minutes in rehearsal? Equally valuable, with focused attention. Multiply your learning in every meeting with Jim Emery's tips for improved effectiveness, from the May 2013 Harmonizer.

Did you know? The entire Harmonizer archive is online in the BHS Member Center (login required.) Skim through decades of history, education, and memories, or search the online index.
