BARBERSHOP NEWS

Denino appointed interim CEO of Society

Strengths include relationships, communication, project implementation, results

Steve Denino, an influential leader on the Society Board, has been appointed interim chief executive officer and executive director through 2025, effective immediately.

He is an executive in the computer services and insurance industries, leading large-scale, mission-critical projects. Well regarded for fostering strong relationships, Steve's expertise lies in part in identifying priorities and engaging others to achieve them.

"Steve will work with the Board, staff, district leaders and Harmony Foundation International to rally us all around shared goals," Society President John Santora said.
