Lineup announced for junior quartet contest

It seems that every time the Barbershop Harmony Society adss a new event for young singers, it quickly evolves from "interesting" to "must see." Proof: the Next Generation Barbershop Junior Quartet Contest lineup was released this week, and it is looking STRONG. Interestingly, more and more quartets are pursuing this event independently of coming with a high school chorus an encouraging sign that young singers find barbershop events compelling. Watch last year's quartets.
