“I’ll take ‘Have A Day’ for $1000”

That was the category for this week’s barbershop reference on Jeopardy! — although it should be noted that the adjacent category, “4 of the same consonant,” would also have worked for the clue.

"Celebrating April 11 as this old-timey singing foursome day dates back to 1938, when 26 men gathered for a songfest; wait... not 24 or 28?"

Returning champion Adam Reiffen correctly responded, “Barbershop Quartet.”

HARMONIZER HIGHLIGHT

Simon says... LAUGH!

Good chapter meetings include healthy doses of AH (singing feels great), AH-HAH (learning something is satisfying), and HA-HA-HA (having fun is fun!) See how you can increase the laughter level in your next rehearsal.

SONG OF THE WEEK

Kokomo arr. Don Reckenbeil

The Beach Boys surfed to #1 with this insanely catchy 1988 hit, which appears in the Tom Cruise film Cocktail. Don Reckenbeil’s arrangement honors all the echoes of “Aruba... Jamaica... ooh I wanna take ya,” plus some steel-drum embellishments that would do John Stamos proud. Definitely the song that they’ll be singing in the lobby... and during the ride home... and as they drop off to sleep....
