SONG OF THE WEEK

Frosty the Snowman

arr. Rob Campbell

Gene Autry debuted this durable novelty song in 1950, following the success of the previous year's "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Chances are your inner jukebox is playing Jimmy Durante's version from the 1969 animated TV special.

Rob Campbell's straightforward arrangement captures the bouncy rhythm and would make it easy for the kids to sing along with the hero's name. Quick addition for a holiday-season quartet! Premium learning tracks by Kim Newcomb and Kohl Kitzmiller.
