Alternative Medicine for a quartet singer

Joe Larson wouldn't let a stroke stop him from performing with his quartet, aptly named Alternative Medicine. While we can't absolutely assert that singing saved him, deep down we all want to believe it probably helped, right? His story was recently featured on InvestigateTV's (begins at 18:40 in the episode), which is aired in 165 US markets.

HARMONIZER HIGHLIGHT

Select your Intentional Repertoire

Selecting the right repertoire can have a massive impact — for good or ill — on every aspect of your chorus or quartet's success. Unfortunately, for many of us, repertoire selection goes no further than "We liked the song, so we decided to learn it," Paul Olyin advises. Don't stop past other vital considerations. Learn more in the November/December Harmonizer, online now.

See it all— The entire Harmonizer archive is online in the BHS Member Center (login required.) Skim through decades of history, education, and memories, or search the online index.

SONG OF THE WEEK

It's Christmas
arr. Brian Beck

"Forget all your troubles, ignore all your woes" with this great holiday show opener, written and arranged by the masterful Brian Beck. Flexible and singable, this one provides lots of opportunities for chorus, quartet, or chorus + quartets.
