LEADERSHIP FOR THE FUTURE

Are You "Called?"

BHS depends on thoughtful, capable individuals who are willing to share their time and talent. Across many roles — committee, task force, Board, and others — the Leadership Development Committee seeks people who previously might never have considered themselves "qualified" for a leadership role. Explore ways your talents can expand the barbershop universe.

Update chapter officers before year end

Whether you are retaining your current leadership or welcoming a new slate, keeping your chapter's leadership roster updated in the Society's Member Center is crucial. Only the leaders listed in the Member Center are authorized to view and manage your chapter's sensitive data. Www this tutorial with details about reporting requirements, and maintain your chapter's Member Center access by updating before the end of the year.

Harmony Foundation proudly supports BHS NextGen

Has barbershop changed your life? Hoping the next generation has their lives changed as well? Please help us give the gift of barbershop to future generations and help transform lives for the better and for always! Learn more information about donating to the amazing BHS NextGen program.

HARMONIZER HIGHLIGHT

Take the Big Leap

Few chapters are planning ahead for a sustainable future. Joe Cerutti wants to change that. Best practices from the non-profit and broader choral world can increase a chapter's present health and put the organization on a track toward permanent stability. Learn more in the November/December Harmonizer, in mailboxes now and online now.

SONG OF THE WEEK

Up Where We Belong
arr. Sam Dabrusin

This love theme from 1982's An Officer and A Gentleman was considered an unlikely duet featuring Jennifer Warnes and Joe Cocker — but it went on to win a Grammy. Gospel duo Bell's and CeCe Winans had similar success, earning a GMA Dove award.
