BARBERSHOP NEWS

Introduce an educator to barbershop

The Barbershop Harmony Society offers four FREE professional development sessions for music educators in 2025. This quarterly series explores innovative ways to engage students through barbershop harmony and a cappella singing. The first webinar— "Harmony at First Sight: Improving Sight Reading Skills through Barbershop Harmony" — will run on Thursday, March 13. Refer music educators to this FREE webinar!

JUNE 29–JULY 6

For the week, or the weekend, make it Denver!

Sure, you want to spend as much time as you can at the 2025 International Convention ... but that pesky job is getting in the way. (Chords still don't pay the rent, sadly.) With the U.S. Independence Day holiday falling on a Friday, many guests will be able to grab a 3-Day Weekend Pass to minimize days off work. Look at all you can pack into the week:

Tue July 1	Wed July 2	Thu July 3	Fri July 4	Sat July 5
 Education in Denver	 Education in Denver	 Education in Denver	Chorus Contest Session 1	Chorus Contest Session 3
Quartet Quarterfinals Session 1	Quartet Quarterfinals Session 3	Gold Medal Hour: Three & A-Hall Men	Chorus Contest Session 2	Quartet Finals and Finale
Quartet Quarterfinals Session 2	NextGen Varsity Quartet Contest	Chorus Festival	Association of International Champions Show (ticketed separately)	Chorditorium
Opening Night Party	Comedy Quartet Festival	Gold Medal Hour: Westminster Chorus
		Quartet Semifinals
		World Harmony Showcase (ticketed separately)

- Note: single-day passes are not likely to be offered, due to limited capacity.
- All competitors must hold full convention registrations

SONG OF THE WEEK

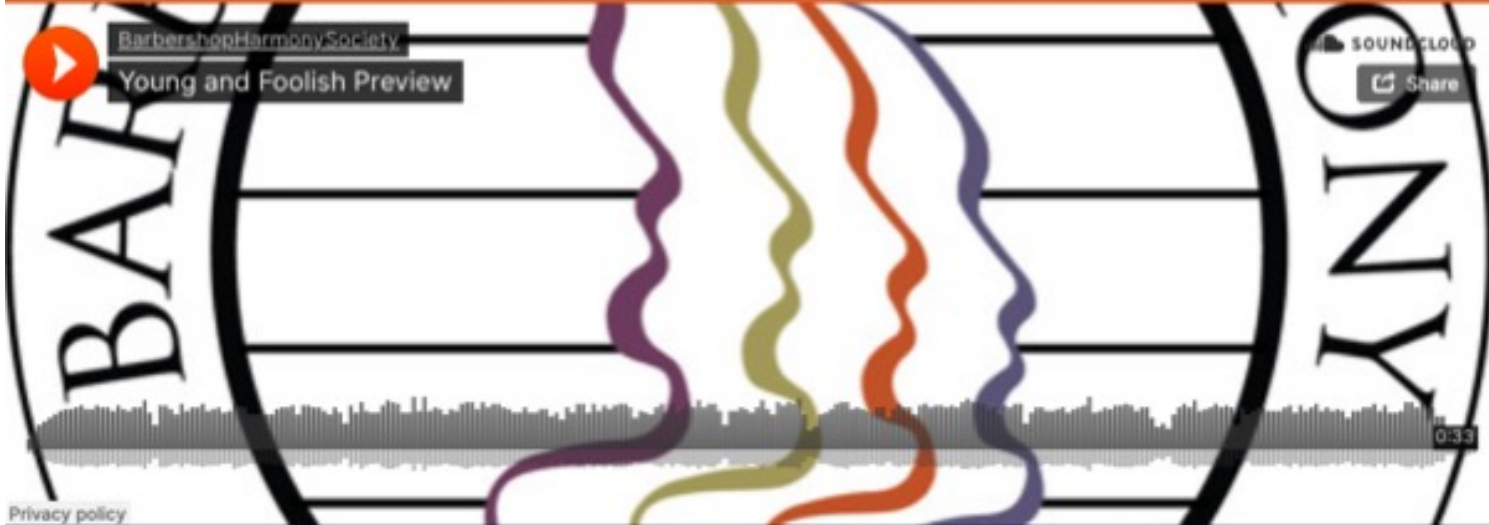

Young and Foolish arr. Tom Gentry

Great songs invite great interpretations, and when all the great performers — Tony Bennett, Dean Martin, Johnny Mathis, Jo Stafford, Leslie Gore, Stan Kenton, pianist Bill Evans, and on and on — all line up to put their mark on it, you know it's a winner. Let your lead be the next great interpreter, letting the emotional energy shine and the melody soar!
